MCKINLEY PRIZES.

The American Economist has published another list of "McKinley prizes" of common necessities, and compares the new prices of July, 1892, with those of 1887 (the date of the free trade tariff panic), October, 1889, and October, 1890, the month when the McKinley law went into operation. The articles in the list are fifty-three in number. One of them—pearl buttons—is still a little dearer than in October, 1890, but the other fifty-two are cheaper. They are axes, binding twine, blankets, blue shirting, boots, calico, ingrain and Brussels carpets, cotton gloves, cotton knit goods, cotton spool thread, crowbars, drawing chains, farm wagons, files, three tined forks, flannel, fruit jars of glass, gingham, handsaws, hoes, hemp rope, linen, mowing machines, wire nails, iron nails, oilcloth, overalls, pins, two horse plows, horse rakes, resaw, rubber boots, salt in barrels, shoes, sheeting, shovels, spades, starch, straw hats, good and common; sugar, granulated and brown; scythes, one quart tin dipper, twelve quart tin milk pails, six quart tin milk pails, tacking, washboards, washtubs, wheelbarrows and wooden pails. The Economist is doing excellent work for protection by the pains it takes to collect and publish these figures.

The sole exception to the rule is pearl buttons, which were priced at 12.57 cents a dozen in October, 1890, and 12.83 cents a dozen in July, 1892. The Economist published a list similar to this in October last, when pearl buttons were worth 13.75 cents per dozen. There is a steady decline even in this pet article of the free trade ranters, until now they are only one-quarter of a cent dearer than when the McKinley law took effect. Anybody who is sorely oppressed by this terrible tax of one-quarter of a cent per dozen of pearl buttons can buy china buttons, or glass buttons, or cloth buttons, or wooden buttons, or bone buttons, or rubber buttons, or metal buttons, and before they are worn out the "tax" will be wiped out altogether by the increased supply of pearl buttons sent into the market by the button factories opened as a result of the increased duty.

Workingmen, you see how steady protection repeals a "tariff tax" by keeping the factories open. The Cleveland way to repeal that tax is to lower the duty and shut the factories. Which way of repealing the tax do you prefer, the one that goes with open factories or the one that shuts the factories up?

THE POLITICAL editor of the Tucson Star, Brewster Cameron, is out in another bogus Republican ticket, and this time, to more effectively injure the Republican chances, puts his own name on the ticket, but for once, at least, intimates the truth, by indicating that he intends "to knife" the so-called ticket. Cameron's political editorship of the Star dates back to the days when Gormley ran for sheriff of Pima county. At that time he and Tidball jointly did the political dirty work of the Star and attacked Gormley with the "coyote bill" and "railroad" charges, which they jointly got up. From that time Cameron has never ceased to play a double hand in politics. Just now he hopes to cause party quarrels by this bogus ticket, thinking that his identity in the matter is unknown. His double and treacherous dealings are, however, so well known, that his appearance at the polls, in favor of any one, would be certain defeat to that person. So well is this known that two years ago the Republicans required him, as a guarantee of his good faith, not only to keep away from the polls, but to also keep off the streets on election day.

THIS "ARE" NEWS.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—This is the date set for the great fight between Ted Pritchard and Jim Hall. The prize is $5,000 and each man is backed for the same amount. It is likely that the police will prevent the fight, although the backers of both men say that the fight will certainly come off.—Telegram in last night's Herald.

The above from a newspaper whose boast is that "today's news" are printed in the Herald" is ludicrous. The fight which the Herald says would occur yesterday took place Saturday night and a full account of it was printed in the Sunday morning REPUBLICAN. The evening sheet should hereafter announce that last week's news "are" printed in the Herald.

SOME SCOTCH workmen hand over all their wages to their wives, who make them an allowance for pocket money. In the course of a newspaper controversy on this subject a thrifty matron stated that she allowed her husband one shilling and six-pence out of his wages, with permission to spend a portion of it in taking a dram with a friend on Saturday night.

JUDGE GRESHAM is altogether too intelligent to make the platform for the populists. His negative position is causing the third party folks not a little alarm, however, and if he speaks they may be yet more alarmed.

SOME GREAT men like Calvin S. Brice is needed in Tennessee just now. Mr. Brice may already have heard that a snarl was in progress down there. It would make his blood run cold to get into it, however.

IF THE Herald would depend upon THE REPUBLICAN in making up its telegraphic columns the few readers of that sheet would have much fresher and more accurate news.

IT is a matter of wonder to the slower thinkers of this country why woman, in this progressive age, should try to excel in man's sphere, when there are so many things in her own which a man could never do and which she might glory in. Mrs. Potter Palmer is a fine delectable example of what a woman can do and do well and still be thoroughly feminine in a Paris dress. She possesses executive ability combined with tact, and results prove that she has the quality of management which makes her the peer of man without encroaching on his sphere.

Will Padarewski shorn of his hair be like Samson? So far as women are concerned it may have been a matter of self defense with him. Our English cousins were quite as demonstrative in their adoration as the American women, and at a recent concert, had it not been for the kindly offices of his manager, he would have been affectionately mobbed.

"German Syrup"

Martinsville, N.J., Methodist Parsonage. "My acquaintance with your remedy, Boschee's German Syrup, was made about fourteen years ago, when I contracted a Cold which resulted in a Hoarseness and a Cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a Physician, without obtaining relief—I cannot say now what remedy he prescribed—I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received such quick and permanent help from it that whenever we have had Throat or Bronchial troubles since in our family, Boschee's German Syrup has been our favorite remedy and always with favorable results. I have never hesitated to report my experience of its use to others when I have found them troubled in like manner." REV. W. H. HAGGARTY, of the Newark, New Jersey, M.E. Conference, April 25, '90. A Safe Remedy.
